C. W. Patterson, formerly of the Yerington Rustler, passed through from the west yesterday morning, having just returned from the Klondike. He reports that the Klondike is the greatest humbug of the century.

Lieutenant Bennett, the mustering officer of the regular army, evidently does not fancy Carson. He telegraphed to headquarters the other day to be allowed to return to his post, but the request was promptly denied.—Carson News.

Geo. McLaughlin, for many years Chief Machinist at the Carson Mint, was a passenger for Philadelphia yesterday morning, where he has been appointed to a similar position in the United States Mint in that city. George is a good man for the place and his long service has been properly recognized.

SNOWSHEDS BURNED.

Tramps Set Fire to an Oil Car and a Portion of a Train is Destroyed.

While a freight train was laboring up the mountain west of Truckee yesterday afternoon at Tunnel 13, an oil car was discovered to be on fire and the flames soon communicated to the sheds. Efforts were made to pull the train to an opening in the sheds, but the flames had reached two cars loaded with naphtha and a terrible explosion occurred, wrecking the cars and sheds and spreading the fire over a large area. In the car where the fire originated the trainmen heard cries of distress and the door was pried open and three tramps badly burned were rescued. One of them it is believed will die from his injuries. The explosion had caused the train to come to a standstill and the flames rapidly spread through the sheds and from car to car. Eighteen cars, part of them loaded with merchandise, were totally destroyed and 1,800 feet of snowshed burned down before the fire could be brought under control. The woods on either side of the track are on fire and the damage will run into the thousands.

The trainmen think the tramps were smoking in the car in which the fire originated and probably threw a lighted match on the floor which was saturated with oil and the draft made by the moving train caused the flames to spread rapidly. This, however, the tramps deny claiming that the fire caught from sparks.

The fire was under control about 5 o'clock last evening and crews were put to work at each end to clear the road. The great heat prevented rapid work and a new track will have to be laid the entire distance. It is expected however to have the road ready so that trains can move by noon today. The place is a bad one as it is so situated that a transfer is next to impossible and a temporary track cannot be built around the wreckage.

Lawyers Sometimes get into Trouble.

Attorney Woodburn wandered into the Capitol Dome on Monday in search of some prehistoric legal lore and as the hours of the afternoon passed away he did not notice the lateness of the hour and the janitor as is his custom locked the door leading to the stairway.

Mr. Woodburn finally descended the winding stairway and found to his horror that he was locked in, out of sight and hearing of the vulgar world.

After meditating on his situation for awhile, he climbed to the dome and tried to attract, by wild gesticulation and shouts, the attention of some of the soldiers lying upon the lawn far below. By accident one of them noticed the prisoner and called the attention of his comrades to the frantic actions of the Carson lawyer in his efforts to explain his situation. They all gazed upward believing that Mr. Woodburn had selected this place to rehearse a speech for the coming campaign and paid little attention to him.

After much shouting and some language not to be found in Blackstone or Kent, Sheriff Kinney from across the street noticed him and with an idea that a sudden case of insanity had developed, he rushed over and up the stairway to the rescue. Mr. Woodburn was not complimentary of the demophs that were on terra firma, to whom he had been shouting and the janitor came in for a liberal supply of the legal gentleman's ire.

A Seventeen Hundred-Pound Steer.

John Sparks has let the Experiment Station people have a young steer in order that they may experiment on the fattening properties of various kinds of food suitable for cattle. The steer is a three-year-old and is of the Hereford stock. He is frequently weighed, also a record kept of his weight, the character and quantity of food consumed each day. He now tips the beam at 1,700 pounds and is a monster. It is proposed to exhibit him at the coming fair and the system used in feeding will be explained. After the fair Mr. Sparks will probably sell the critter for Christmas beef.

A Narrow Escape.

Yesterday Mrs. Gignoux, the step-mother of Lieutenant Gignoux, was going up the Clear Creek Grade with a camping party, accompanied by her husband, when they got out to walk along the edge of the flume. Mrs. Gignoux fell into the flume and was carried down a mile.

Her companions were greatly alarmed as they thought death certain. Following the flume they found her caught in a jam with but few slight injuries.—Appeal.

From Pete Rasmussen.

H. Block received a letter from Pete Rasmussen yesterday dated at Dawson City, June 1st. Pete reports many discouraged men there. He is interested in a claim near Dawson and hopes he will make a stake. He says there is gold there but it is hard to get and like all other mining camps everything is very high.

For Governor.

Hon. Lem Allen has announced himself as a candidate for Governor, subject to the decision of the Silver Party State Convention. Lem has been a prospective candidate for some time, but now it seems he is in dead earnest. He is well known throughout the State and is a straight-out Silver man.

Miss Winnie Bellam, who was so badly burned at Wadsworth on Monday evening by the explosion of a lamp, will recover, but she will retain several scars as a memento of her terrible experience.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

THE STATE FAIR.

Superintendent Fitzgerald aid of the Race Track Doing Good Work.

Notwithstanding the war and dull times, the State Fair this year promises to be one of the best ever held in the State. President Lem Allen is giving much of his time to arranging the preliminaries and getting matters in shape so that the racing men, as well as the general public, will have no reason to say that "If so and so had been attended to the fair would have been a success." President Allen proposes to have all details arranged in advance and a good meeting will be assured. The other Directors are just as energetic in their various departments and Secretary Bevier is sending out loads of circulars and information and answering letters of inquiry every day.

The Board of Directors have funds at their command to put the track in perfect condition and Superintendent Fitzgerald is devoting his entire time to this work. The track has been dragged and scraped and leveled and sprinklers are at work every day and by fair week it is believed it will be one of the fastest tracks on the coast. Mr. Fitzgerald has also given his attention to the buildings, stables and general surroundings of the State property and it is in better order now than it ever has been since it was first established.

A new water system is being put in to supply the grand stand also the lines of stables. At the suggestion of Mr. Sparks, Superintendent Fitzgerald is cutting the walls or sides of the stockstalls down, so that an observer can stand at the end of the sheds and see the whole herd. Heretofore, the animals have been screened from view and it was necessary to get directly in front of the stall to see them.

The trees along the outside of the track have been trimmed and all overgrowth removed. The fences have been braced and where necessary, new posts have been set. In fact Mr. Fitzgerald has not allowed anything to escape his notice, which could be improved or repaired.

The fact that his funds have been limited has forced him to economize more than he would have done had there been more money to expend and some of the old sheds and outbuildings would have been torn down and new ones put in their place. This, however, would have cost considerable and he made the old ones do for the season. He intends to have the judges and timers stands painted and the grand stand put in good order. One of the items of expense made necessary by carelessness, is the purchase of 1,800 feet of two-inch pipe for the water supply, the water having remained in the pipes last winter and the cold weather causing them to burst. As stated before everything about the track and track itself will be in first class order for the coming meeting.

The advertisement will appear tomorrow and it will be found by reading it over, that the events equal if not surpass any heretofore presented by the State Board of Agriculture.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can take it who has lame back and weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, head aches, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

Fire at Susanville.

The operator at Johnstonville, four miles this side of Susanville, reported that a big fire was burning at the latter place at 11:13 last night. He caught just enough over the wire to learn that the Masonic Hall, one of the largest buildings in the town was burning and communication ceased. The extent of the fire could not be learned, but it is believed to have taken the block in which the Masonic building was located.

A Satisfied Home.

The death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pearson is announced in yesterday's Enterprise. The little one was buried yesterday. Mr. Pearson is a nephew of Mrs. Wm. Webster, Sr., of this city. Mrs. Webster left for Virginia yesterday morning to attend the funeral.

Judging from the number of candidates springing up all over the county, we are going to have a pretty hard winter. No fewer than eight persons have been named as candidates for Sheriff, and the biennial fever has barely yet begun.—Elko Argonaut.

The same conditions seem to prevail all over the State.

The papers say that Mrs. John F. Wheeler of Elko has opened the campaign for her husband, J. T. Wheeler, for the nomination of Attorney General. She proposes attending the Silver Party State Convention and will urge his nomination on the Silver ticket.

A Business School.

The approach was like that of a runaway engine tearing through a tunnel. The floor was littered with youngsters lying on their stomachs, and all bawling with an urgency indicative that somebody was hurting them. Long, slim, scratched upon slips of palm leaf, the equivalent of books in Burma, were spread before the scholars. Making the last shot is the approved method of elementary instruction. When the master discovers any lagging in lung exercise, a long switch begins to swing through the air. Quiet, serious study is exploded. The Burmese educationists argue that so long as a boy is shouting his mind is occupied. When he is silent, he is certain to be scheming mischief. Therefore the best shooters are the best pupils.—Travel.
